Alexandra Riggle	I encourage those who have mentioned their atheist beliefs to explore (and possibly refine) the label they give themselves. This article does a good job of outlining specific definitions. https://www.thoughtco.com/atheist-vs-agnostic-whats-the-difference-	Jan 13, 2019 7:17 PM

Alexandra Riggle	:thumbsup:	Jan 13, 2019 7:18 PM
David Reichard	Thanks, Alexander. My atheist label never quite fits, especially since I go to a church. Agnostic is a worse label for me. So I'll check out that article. I think part of the answer is that you can be deeply ethical and passionate without a religion.	Jan 13, 2019 7:20 PM
Dylan Barsby	An interesting 'label' to explore is also 'Sentientism'.	Jan 13, 2019 7:20 PM

Dr. Stacey Anderson	I have a question for you, Robert: Is the main action to get in front of cameras and speak our truth? The Sunrise Movement appears prominently in your presentation. Do you recommend organizing under a brand like that? #MeToo and #BlackLivesMatter have	Jan 13, 2019 9:31 PM

Sena Crutchley	I have joined the Vegan Justice League and am curious what you think about their efforts. For those unfamiliar, they are raising funding for lobbyists to speak on behalf of animals from the perspective of vegan values. http://www.veganjusticeleague.com/	Jan 13, 2019 9:34 PM
Admin	It's so great that Robert mentions local activism. We often forget that we are vegans as well as citizens of local communities. We have the ability to impact animals in many ways, including looking at ordinances and fighting to change those that all	Jan 13, 2019 9:34 PM
Dylan Barsby	Good point. I do street and online activism, but I tend not to think about using political channels.	Jan 13, 2019 9:35 PM

Caitlin Kelty-Huber	RE: working at the local level: Q: How do you work together with nonvegans on pro-animal issues you both agree on without falling into a trap of single-issue campaigns?	Jan 13, 2019 9:36 PM
Dr. Stacey Anderson	HHOS and Dylan: Yes, local action. But as Nassim was clear about re. my question about ranching interests in Marin County, don't focus on the intransigent. Focus instead on those around them--the minds that can be open.	Jan 13, 2019 9:36 PM
Dr. Stacey Anderson	recalcitrant--sorry.	Jan 13, 2019 9:37 PM

Sena Crutchley	Thank you for posing that question to Robert, Hope.	Jan 13, 2019 9:45 PM
Dr. Stacey Anderson	O golly, and what Mark says. I tend to bow out of the infighting thing, but I'm aware it goes on. Divide and conquer should not be an impediment in our movement.	Jan 13, 2019 9:45 PM
Kayla Worden	yeah, Mark, vegan infighting is rampant	Jan 13, 2019 9:46 PM
